Start Preparing Now for 6G, ATIS Says

May 21, 2020

ATIS urged policymakers to start focusing on 6G. "Today's investments in 5G networks, devices and applications already point toward the future opportunities," ATIS said Wednesday: "The world is exploring opportunities that will light the path to 6G." COVID-19 "has also shone a spotlight on the critical role of communications networks in our daily lives," said ATIS President Susan Miller.
